- Retail unit fitted out to a high standard with extensive storage area to the rear.
- Prominent location within Carrickfergus.
- Flexible lease terms available.

LOCATION

Market Place is a pedestrianised retail area within Carrickfergus Town Centre located at its junction with High Street and North Street.

The subject property is situated on the upper section of Market Place in a terrace of units, with an excellent mix of neighbouring occupiers to include Nationwide Building Society, Ulster Property Sales and Ollie's Bistro.

DESCRIPTION

The unit is situated on a prominent high street location, comprising a large retail sales area with an abundance of storage to the rear along with male and female WC facilities.

The unit benefits from a powder coated aluminium shop front with an electric roller shutter, a three phase electricity supply and an alarm system in situ. The sales area is fitted to a good standard with plastered and painted ceiling with recessed and panel LED lighting and a carpeted floor.

The rear storage unit accommodation comprises a mix of hardstanding / carpeted floor covering and an exposed ceiling with fluorescent strip lighting and double width access doors to the rear.

There is also provision for 2 cars to park to the rear of the unit.
