ARDCHATTAN, 15 BELFAST ROAD, NEWTOWNARDS,

OFFERS AROUND £649,950

Ardchattan is a well-known period property on the beautiful Belfast Road. Located only minutes from Newtownards town centre and close to the main arterial routes to Belfast, it is a prime area for anyone commuting or for those looking for a family home, packed with character and quality. The current owners have modernised throughout and the result is a substantial residence with a plethora of period features whilst also benefitting from many modern upgrades.

Approached by a sweeping driveway with electric gates and set back on a private site, any viewer will immediately be impressed with the facade of this fantastic home. On entering, you will appreciate the attention to detail the owners have taken to ensure as many period features have been retained as possible. There are corniced ceilings, feature fireplaces, original tiling, ceiling roses and stained glass doors and windows. all in excellent condition.

The ground floor comprises living room, drawing room, family room, kitchen with dining area and snug, utility room and guest wc. The first and second floors have five double bedrooms, two luxury family bathrooms, walk-in hotpress and walk-in storage room.

Externally, there are landscaped gardens to front and rear with entertaining areas, mature plants, shrubs and trees, shed and workshop and a large brick paviour driveway with parking for multiple vehicles.

Properties this like don't come to the market often and we recommend viewing at your earliest convenience to fully appreciate the space, finish and character in this exceptional home.
