A Beautifully Presented and Extended Home!

Oakwood Mews is a small, private and highly sought after cul-de-sac located off Malone Court. This south facing home has been extended with a sunroom, a downstairs shower room and a utility room. It has also been refurbished throughout and although suitable for all ages it may be of particular interest to those wishing to downsize to quiet, very easily managed and luxurious accommodation.

The location offers both privacy and convenience to the city centre and motorway networks as well as a superb range of schools, nearby golf clubs, riverside walks and other recreational activities.

This attractive chain-free home has a very practical and sought after layout for most family requirements. The accommodation comprises two delightful reception rooms, a large kitchen with a matching utility room, a downstairs shower room, three bedrooms - the master with an ensuite, and a luxury family bathroom with a white suite and last but not least is the integral garage that can be accessed from the utility room.

There is plenty of parking to the front of the property and the rear of the property has been tarmacked to reduce maintenance and hassle!
