We are delighted to present to the open market this attractive red brick detached villa.

Internally the property offers bright accommodation comprising three bedrooms, two separate reception rooms, kitchen and shower room with modern white suite. Externally there is a driveway to car parking and detached garage with well tended gardens to front and enclosed to rear. Additional benefits include oil fired central heating and double glazed windows and doors.

The property provides excellent convenience to the ever growing buzz of Ballyhackamore village and its many amenities to include popular restaurants and coffee shops. Public transport links for city commuting and many of the provinces leading schools are also easily accessible.

Properties within this location have a proven track record for creating strong demand, early consideration to view is highly recommended in order to avoid disappointment.
