SUMMARY

Ideally situated on a slightly elevated secluded position overlooking the surrounding countryside with the Craigtlet Hills, Scrabo, Strangford Lough and Ards Peninsula in the distance.

The spacious well appointed country residence is located near Lisbane village, offering a choice of renowned restaurants, with sailing and aquatic sports around the corner and easy access to Comber, Newtownards and Belfast.

Internally the accommodation is versatile and easily adaptable to suit most family needs. The ground floor includes a lounge with open fire, open plan kitchen and family, leading to the garden room and a bedroom with en suite. Three further bedrooms, principal with en suite, and family bathroom complete the first floor.

A bitmac drive leads from the country road to the residence and double garage. Gardens surround the residence and include a private patio with a bbq to rear.

Public transport at the entrance gates serves a range of schools in Newtownards, Belfast and Downpatrick, with a choice of good primary schools in the immediate area.
