SUMMARY

A most attractive, contemporary country residence set in spacious gardens enjoying fabulous views over the surrounding countryside.

The residence, built around 20 years ago to exacting specifications, offers generous and flexible accommodation which could easily be reconfigured to suit most families needs. The kitchen, with casual family dining, living room and sun room, with access to the rear garden, are no doubt the heart of the home and are complimented by a formal dining area and separate lounge with open fire. The house comprises of two double bedrooms both with en-suite, two single bedrooms and 5th bedroom / study and bathroom complete the home.

Outside, a bitmac drive, providing ample parking, leads from the county road to a double garage. The spacious gardens surround the property, providing uninterrupted exceptional views of the rolling countryside and offers superb privacy.

The residence is in an ideal location, reaping all the benefits of rural living, yet only minutes drive from Comber, Dundonald and Newtownards. Belfast and The City Airport are a short commute. A fine selection of primary and secondary schools are in the area.
