

Having been loved by the same family for the last 50 years, this extended semi detached home oozes character and charm both internally and externally. Of particular note are the breathtaking views over Belfast and beyond, particularly from the decked top tier of the garden.

On entering the property, the first thing that strikes you is how deceptively spacious it is. Boasting an impressive six bedrooms and three reception rooms plus study, the versatile accommodation is ideal for every day family life.

Only a short drive away are a number of local amenities, including leading primary and secondary schools, Forest-side Shopping complex, Cregagh Glen and there is a public transport link within walking distance.
