SUMMARY

37 Stormont Park is an attractive detached residence dating back to 1929 in this well renowned and highly sought after location within East Belfast.

The accommodation is well appointed and includes many original period features such as corniced ceilings, corbels, ceiling roses, stained glass windows and feature fireplaces. You are greeted by welcoming entrance porch and hallway with cloakroom, there are three reception rooms with fire surrounds with open and gas compatible fire void spaces. The Parkes kitchen is fitted with an excellent range of cabinets with integrated appliances and a casual dining area, in addition there is a separate pantry. On the first floor return you will find a bathroom, shower room, linen cupboard and storage cupboard. Furthermore on the first floor there are four double bedrooms. From the first floor landing you can access the large fully floored roofspace via an electric remote controlled staircase. The roofspace has two separate rooms with heating system and velux windows, it would require very little to convert into further accommodation.

Outside there is a detached garage with twin opening remote up and over doors, a shower room and utility area. Above the garage is a spacious home office space which could be used as playroom or gym.

The gardens that surround the property are mature with shrub beds and border hedging. There is driveway parking to the front and side, and patio space to the rear.

Stormont Park is ideally located next to Stormont Estate, a short walk into Ballyhackamore Village, accessible to the City Centre via the Glider, and 5 minutes to Belfast City Airport. There are an excellent range of primary and secondary schools all within close proximity also.

All in all this is a fine family home. Early viewing highly recommended.
