SUMMARY

A superb, extended detached bungalow enjoying a prime location at the foot of the Craigtlet Hills, on the periphery of Newtownards. No. 26 Ballybarnes Road rests on an elevated position and offers far reaching views towards Scrabo Tower. There are large gardens laid out in lawns, mature trees, hedging and fantastic parking with a large tarmac driveway. In need of some light modernisation, this spacious bungalow represents a great opportunity to purchase a "forever home" for those seeking a property to enjoy a semi-rural location, privacy, and convenience in one of Newtownards' most sought after residential locations.

Being located on the "Belfast side of town", commuting to Belfast is very palatable and with that accessibility to leading schools. Shopping is close to hand also, with the busy Newtownards town centre only a few minutes' drive away, Holywood and Bangor can also be reached within a 10-15 min drive, Stormont Buildings, City Airport, and the Ulster Hospital are also easily accessible from this property.

To arrange your own, private viewing appraisal, please contact our Newtownards office on 02891 800700.
