A Must View!

This fantastic semi-detached home is conveniently located on a quiet avenue between the outer ring and the Ballygowan Road. It is beautifully presented throughout, is in great condition and is ready for you to move into. There are wonderful views over Belfast and beyond from the front of the property that you could never tire of.

Downstairs comprises a welcoming entrance hall with under stair cloaks, a living room with a feature fireplace, a dining room with a wooden floor and a modern kitchen with a good range of units and an integrated oven & hob. Upstairs comprises three bedrooms and a contemporary bathroom.

To the front there is a lawn with a selection of shrubs and to the side there is a driveway offering off road parking. The rear garden is very private and offers a patio area and a raised lawn so your time can be best spent relaxing.

The property is conveniently located within walking distance to local schools and shops with transport links into the city centre nearby.
