We are honoured to present 'Ederowen Farm' a charming period home dating to the early 1900's offering an exceptionally well-presented small holding with business premises and significant potential. Finished to an extremely high standard and recently renovated by it's current owners. Approached by a gated sweeping driveway, it is surrounded by mature gardens boasting specimen trees to include oak and numerous fruit trees and feature stream leading to Lough Neagh. In addition to this idyllic setting, it offers significant business opportunities via substantial retail and industrial premises to the rear. It may be suitable for other uses subject to the necessary planning consents.

The property offers light and bright accommodation throughout with three well-appointed reception rooms that retain numerous original features, four well-proportioned double bedrooms (two with ensembles), separate Study and Luxury Family

Bathroom across the first floor. Additionally, the sale also boasts high quality arable/grazing ground that may be highly suitable for equestrian purposes adjacent to a site with full planning permission for a c.4,000sq.ft countryside home and detached garage, designed by renowned architect Emily Warwick. This can enjoy a separate access onto the Lurgan Road. All in all set with c.8 acres it is rare that such an opportunity is presented to the market.

Ideally located in a very unique private setting enjoying the convenience of Glenavy, Antrim and Crumlin's vibrant village centres with a great array of shops, bars, restaurants, cafes, excellent schooling. Centrally located in Mid Antrim commuters travelling further afield can avail of a great road network, which enables access to many leading towns and schools with ease of access to Belfast International Airport. Early enquiries are recommended.
