A unique opportunity to acquire a superb five bedroom detached family residence with magnificent views of the River Bann, located on the edge of Portstewart. Approached by a treelined driveway, the property itself extends to approximately 3,492 square foot of living space. Designed by Studio Rogers Architects the property was constructed in 2000 by Gibson Construction. Internally the property boasts a wealth of well proportioned and versatile accommodation with bright and spacious rooms throughout which are beautifully presented by the current vendor offering magnificent views of lower garden and River Bann. The selling agents thoroughly recommend early internal appraisal of this spectacular family home which will have instant appeal for those in search of a property with an exceptional layout and luxurious specification inside and out.

Leaving Coleraine heading to Portstewart on the Portstewart Road, take your next left after the Cranagh Marina onto Drumslade Road. No 3 will be the second property on your right hand side.
