

The Agent's Perspective...

" 'Glencairn' has been the happy, family home for the present owners since 1976 and is typical of those families who have identified the sylvan, unspoiled environs of the area as a great place to call 'home'.

The house is set well back from the road and has mature extensive grounds extending to c.0.4 acre which enjoy a sunny aspect to the rear. Many of the original features and style of the 1930's period have been retained including stained leaded glass windows (which have now been encapsulated in uPVC double glazed units), panelled doors and decorative, panelled and corniced ceilings. The accommodation radiates from the panlled reception hall and offers comfortable space for all the family.

'Glencairn' is a handsome house which is now ready to welcome the next family who have the opportunity to make it their own".
