This fine building site is located in a semi rural location, accessed off the main Armagh to Portadown Road, close to the village of Richhill. In bygone days, when horse drawn stage coaches transported travellers from Belfast to Dublin the road went through the hamlet of Loney's Town. The road was straightened at sometime, leaving 173 Portadown Road back from the main road and creating a private, tranquil setting. Today, there is replacement Planning Permission for number 173, the new house it styled on a traditional farmhouse designed by local architect C T Lindsay, extending to 2665 sq ft plus a double garage.

The property should appeal to someone seeking to build their own home, in a lovely semi rural setting, ideally located convenient to Richhill, Portadown and Armagh.
