Welcome to Michaels Cottage, a charming Grade II listed cottage located in the heart of St Tudy. This delightful property boasts three bedrooms and a large rear garden, making it the perfect family home with a blend of historic character and modern conveniences.

Upon entry, you are welcomed into a characterful kitchen, setting a warm and inviting tone. Adjacent to the kitchen is a convenient downstairs W/C. The designated dining space, featuring stunning ceiling beams, provides a cosy atmosphere ideal for family evenings. The living space is a highlight of the cottage, featuring a beautiful fireplace that creates a perfect setting for chilly evenings. Imagine nestling in this room with the fire roaring, creating a cozy and inviting ambiance.

Upstairs, the cottage offers three well-proportioned bedrooms, providing excellent accommodation options for any family. Each room is filled with natural light and maintains the cottage's charming character.

Externally, Michaels Cottage is situated on approximately a quarter of an acre. The mature garden is perfect for green-fingered individuals, while the patio space encourages outdoor dining and relaxation. Being located in the heart of St Tudy, local amenities such as the village shop, pub, and community events are just a stone's throw away, enhancing the convenience and appeal of this wonderful property.

The current live planning permission for Michaels Cottage includes an exciting opportunity for a significant rear extension off the existing building. This approved extension is designed to enhance the property with a spacious new kitchen, a dining area, and an additional downstairs toilet.

This planning permission offers a wonderful chance to expand and personalise Michaels Cottage, allowing future owners to tailor the extension to their unique tastes and needs. For more details and to explore the possibilities of this extension, please contact the agent.

Overall Michaels Cottage combines historic charm with future modern potential, offering a unique and cosy home in a picturesque village setting.

St Tudy is a charming village in North Cornwall, known for its scenic countryside and historic character. Nestled among rolling hills, it offers a peaceful escape with convenient access to the stunning North Cornwall coast and beaches.

The village features a 13th-century church, quaint cottages, and a welcoming community. Local amenities include The St Tudy Inn, a popular pub known for its local cuisine. Outdoor enthusiasts will enjoy the nearby Bodmin Moor for hiking and the Camel Trail for cycling.

St Tudy's location is perfect for exploring Cornwall. The picturesque fishing village of Port Isaac and the bustling town of Wadebridge, with its shops and cafes, are both a short drive away. The village is also served by a highly regarded primary school, making it ideal for families.

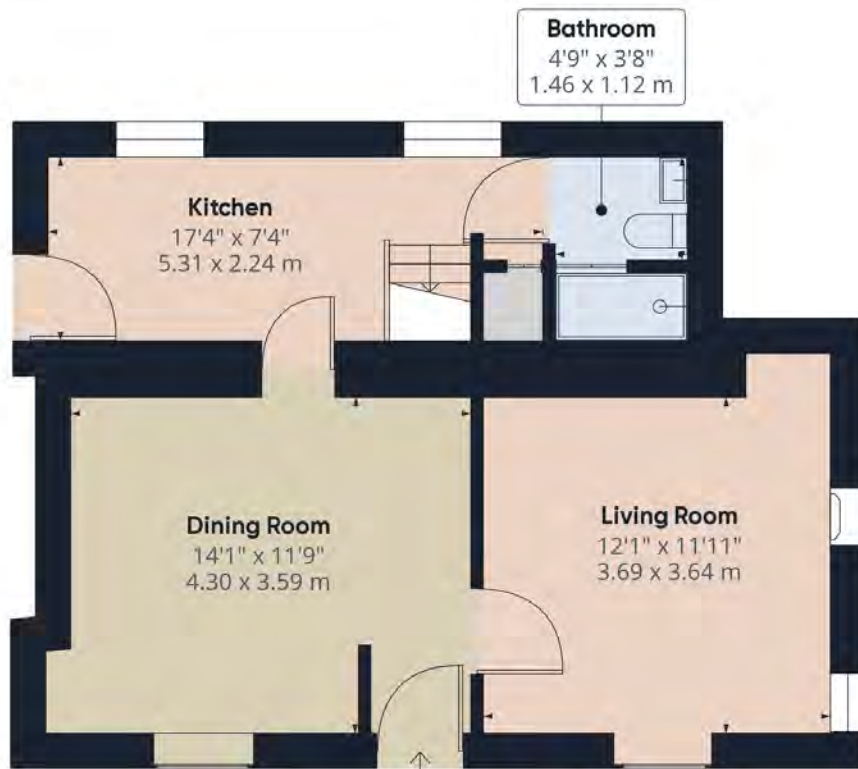

In essence, St Tudy offers the best of rural Cornish life, combining historic charm, beautiful landscapes, and a strong sense of community.
