This is, without doubt, one of those properties that can only be properly appreciated on full internal inspection. Occupying an elevated position with superb sun orientation and far reaching views to the front over Slemish and open countryside to the rear, this incredibly subtle detached cottage has been specifically designed to create a stunning impression from the first second the viewer walks through the front door.

Greeted by a spacious entrance hall with feature, pebble filled, floor trough with uplighters and designed to accommodate a staircase to the first floor that is fully set up for an attic conversion. Look to the right and your gaze is drawn through the partially glazed French doors to the incredible open plan kitchen, living and dining area with double height vaulted ceiling. Boasting a feature raised corner fireplace with exposed flue and curved staircase to the generous first floor mezzanine level with French doors to the elevated outdoor balcony and veranda below, this elevated living area combines internal views over the open plan space below and external views over the surrounding countryside.

With four bedrooms (master with luxury ensuite) and four reception area's to include the mezzanine level, this property is likely to appeal to even the most discerning purchaser in need of generous family accommodation or requiring multi-generational living for Granny & Granda on a large, private site.

Outside the tarmac drive provides off-street parking for at least 10 cars with carport style parking for at least four more together with a large cavity block built double garage benefiting from vendor owned solar panels on the roof, an independent oil-fired boiler, electric doors, shower room with W/C and fixed staircase to the first floor ideally suited to a home office, gym, hobby room or commercial use (subject to necessary approvals).

Early viewing strongly recommended.
