

We are delighted to bring to the market this stunning two storey detached property set on spacious mature site offering four bedrooms, two bathrooms and two reception rooms. The property has undergone extensive refurbishment and repair in the past two years, including replumbing and part rewiring, and is in excellent condition throughout. Situated in the sought after Beechwood Avenue, only a very short walking distance to Ballycastle beach and seafront area, we expect this property to be of interest to many. We as selling agents highly recommend early internal inspection!
