3 COASTGUARD COTTAGES, PORTBALLINTRAE

This rare opportunity allows you to own a piece of maritime history in the charming fishing village of Portballintrae. This distinctive Grade B1 listed property is set on a spacious site with extensive gardens, offering breathtaking views of the harbour from its elevated position.

Dating back to the late 1800s, this property was originally part of the Portballintrae Coastguard Station and retains much of its historical charm, incorporating the original watchtower as a unique feature.

The interior, whilst well presented, offers potential for further modernisation. It provides spacious accommodation with five bedrooms and three well proportioned reception areas. Externally, the property boasts a large seafront garden (approx. 0.5 acres) and the original blackstone toilet blocks now offer additional storage and utility space.

This property is a testament to maritime heritage and Victorian architecture, ideal for those passionate about history and coastal living. Whether as a family home or a unique retreat, it promises an exceptional living experience.

FEATURES

- Oil fired central heating system
- Traditional single glazed timber framed windows.
- Expansive gardens extending to approximately 0.5 acres.
- Gravel driveway and ample parking area.
