

20 Main Street presents a rare opportunity to acquire two charming cottages on a single title, situated in the highly sought-after Crawfordsburn Village. Properties on Main Street are a rare find, making this offering particularly special.

The main residence, Crawfordsburn Cottage, can be accessed directly from Main Street and boasts a traditional charm with modern comforts. This characterful residence features a cosy living and dining room with an open fire, a fully fitted kitchen with casual dining space, and two double bedrooms. The large bathroom and traditional front porch add to the home's appeal. Notably, Crawfordsburn Cottage is licensed with NI Tourism and has its own dedicated website.

Cherry Tree Cottage, a detached self-contained annex, is accessed from the rear via Crawfordsburn Village Brow. This newly constructed cottage offers a modern open-plan layout with a mezzanine level, a convenient WC, and off-street parking at the front. This annex is ideal for visiting family or could serve as a profitable holiday let.

The cottages are separated by a dividing wall for privacy and share a delightful garden laid out in lawns between them.

This unique property offers versatile living arrangements and a blend of traditional charm with modern amenities. An internal viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate everything this exceptional property has to offer.
