The stunning property has undergone extensive renovations, resulting in a truly impressive and stylish home that is perfectly suited for modern family living. As you enter through the electric sliding gate, you are greeted by a stunning entrance hall featuring Amtico luxury tiled flooring and wood panelled walls. The spacious open plan living dining room boasts walnut herringbone flooring and double doors that lead to a remarkable sunroom. This sunroom offers an abundance of natural light, thanks to its extensive glazing, and is enhanced by the warmth and luxury provided by the cast iron wood burning "Morso" stove. From the sunroom, you can access the private, landscaped rear garden, which features a low maintenance artificial lawn and a paved area, ideal for entertaining. Additionally, the recently installed garden room adds a touch of luxury and versatility to the outdoor space. Moving to the first floor, you will find three well-proportioned bedrooms, two of which have full-length built-in robes, a stunning family shower room, and an extremely useful and already well utilised loft room.

Grand Prix Park is a highly sought-after cul de sac street located in Dundonald. It is known for its superb convenience and the rarity of properties becoming available for sale. It also provides residents with easy access to a wide range of amenities. Within close proximity, you will find the renowned David Lloyd gym, Dundonald Ice Bowl, and Omniplex, offering plenty of opportunities for fitness, entertainment, food and leisure activities. Additionally, Moat Park, local schools, the Ulster Hospital, and Knock Golf Club are all conveniently located and not forgetting the Comber Greenway is accessible from the top of the street. All of this means that residents have everything they need within easy reach.
