We are pleased to offer 19.326 acres, or thereabouts, of quality arable, agricultural lands as a whole or in two lots

The lands include:

Lot 1 extending to 7.286 acres.

Divided into two fields and enjoying frontage to the Killaughey and Windmill Roads. The lands are currently growing a crop of spring barley and are connected to a mains water supply (which is currently not connected).

Lot 2
Is situated a short distance away and extending to circa 12.04 acres. The lands are divided into four fields of which three are in permanent pasture and the fourth under plough. The land enjoys good frontage to the country road with an access onto a bitmac lane situated on the western boundary of the lands.

Mains water is believed to be connected to the lands (currently disconnected).
