— SITUATION —

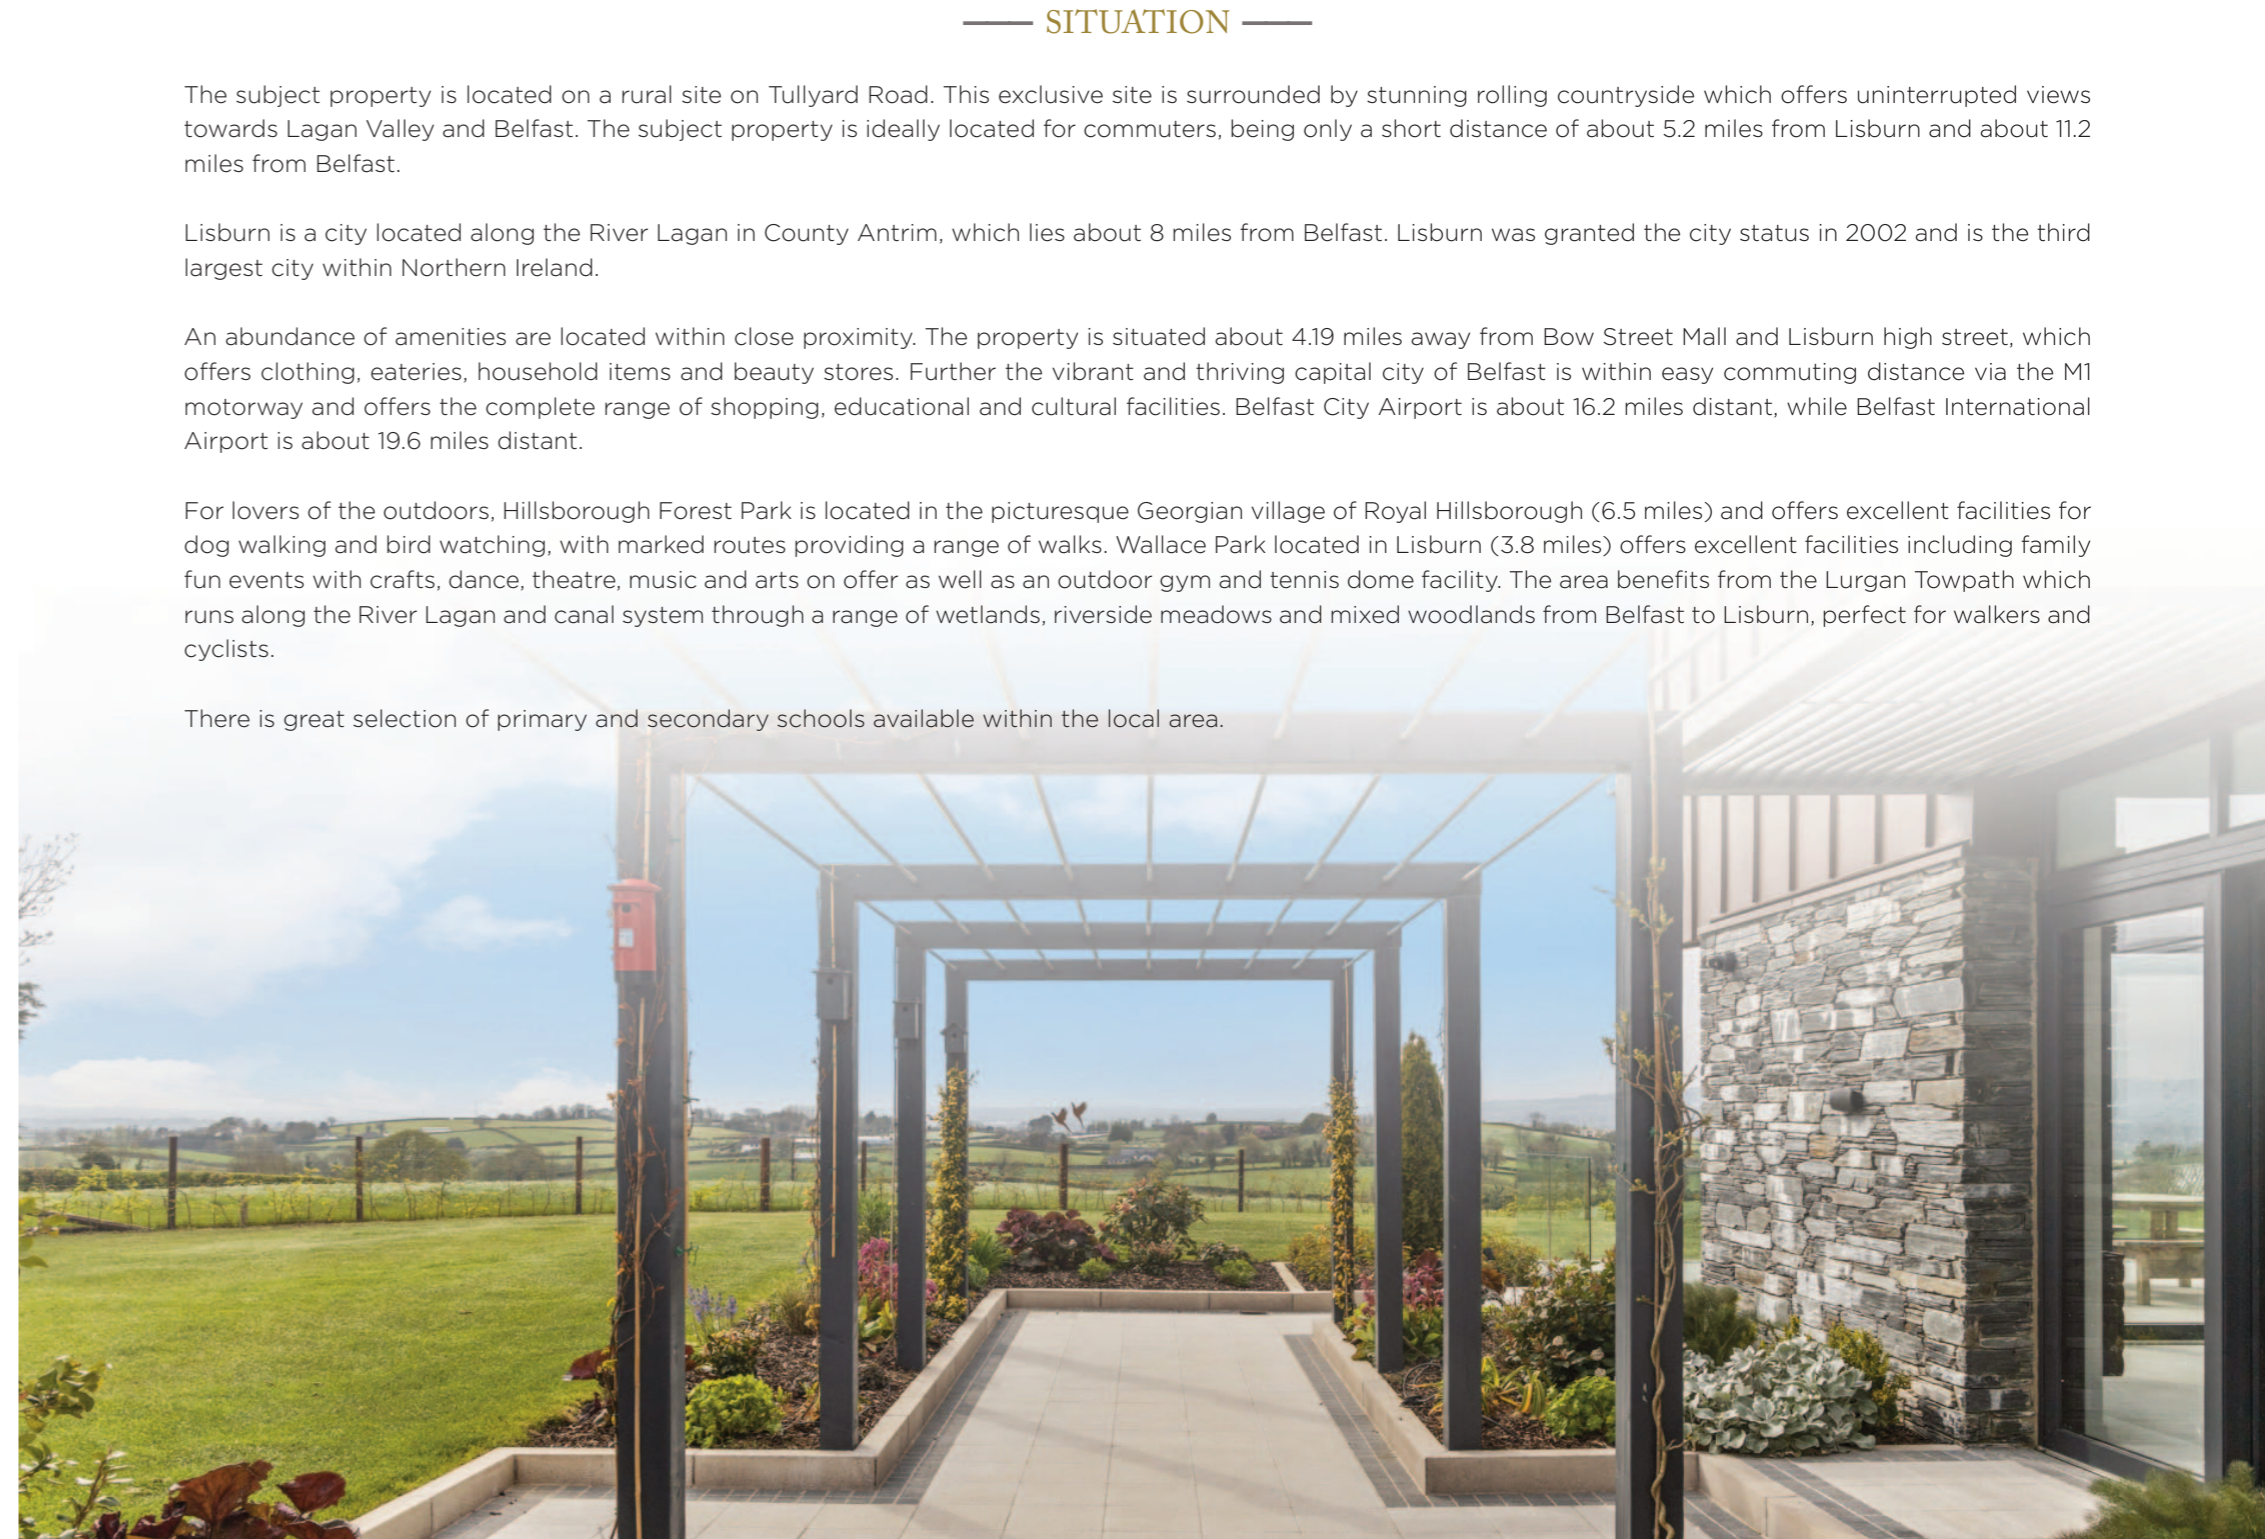

The subject property is located on a rural site on Tullyard Road. This exclusive site is surrounded by stunning rolling countryside which offers uninterrupted views towards Lagan Valley and Belfast. The subject property is ideally located for commuters, being only a short distance of about 5.2 miles from Lisburn and about 11.2 miles from Belfast.

Lisburn is a city located along the River Lagan in County Antrim, which lies about 8 miles from Belfast. Lisburn was granted the city status in 2002 and is the third largest city within Northern Ireland.

An abundance of amenities are located within close proximity. The property is situated about 4.19 miles away from Bow Street Mall and Lisburn high street, which offers clothing, eateries, household items and beauty stores. Further the vibrant and thriving capital city of Belfast is within easy commuting distance via the M1 motorway and offers the complete range of shopping, educational and cultural facilities. Belfast City Airport is about 16.2 miles distant, while Belfast International Airport is about 19.6 miles distant.

For lovers of the outdoors, Hillsborough Forest Park is located in the picturesque Georgian village of Royal Hillsborough (6.5 miles) and offers excellent facilities for dog walking and bird watching, with marked routes providing a range of walks. Wallace Park located in Lisburn (3.8 miles) offers excellent facilities including family fun events with crafts, dance, theatre, music and arts on offer as well as an outdoor gym and tennis dome facility. The area benefits from the Lurgan Towpath which runs along the River Lagan and canal system through a range of wetlands, riverside meadows and mixed woodlands from Belfast to Lisburn, perfect for walkers and cyclists.

There is great selection of primary and secondary schools available within the local area.

DESCRIPTION
