This is an superb opportunity to purchase an exceptionally well presented five bedroom detached house finished to a superior standard both inside and out. In addition to three well proportioned reception rooms, this property boasts a host of extras too numerous to list. The sleek "Shaker" style kitchen units are complimented by the dining island finished in polished granite worktop. For those who enjoy entertaining, the range of integrated appliances will not disappoint, with oven, hob, dishwasher, fridge and freezer not to mention the microwave and TV recesses with feature lift up door fronts. Upstairs the generous well proportioned bedroom accommodation is boosted by the inclusion of an ensuite to the master bedroom and the addition of a fifth bedroom, toilet and study area in the superbly executed second floor conversion providing almost self contained guest accommodation with beautiful views over Antrim town to the Sperrin Mountains beyond. Outside the professionally landscaped gardens to the front and rear include extensive use of Tegula brick to the 3 car off street parking and large patio area to the rear. The private south facing back garden provides an oasis for those wishing to enjoy the beautifully groomed lawn and low maintenance and well stocked borders. In addition anyone wishing to work from home has the benefit of an already converted garage suitable for home office or treatment area with a convenient additional side door for easy access. In short this beautifully appointed home is likely to satisfy the wish list of even the most discerning purchaser whether looking for extensive accommodation for the larger family or choosing to work from home. Early viewing very strongly recommended.
