

34 Edith Helen Road , Newtownards, BT23 8HG

Set on an elevated site with excellent views across Newtownards town towards Strangford Lough and Scrabo Tower, this semi detached home has been well cared for by its current long term owner but will now require some modernisation and upgrading to prepare it for the next stage of its life.

It offers 3 first floor bedrooms plus a bathroom and separate WC. The ground floor offers a lounge and separate dining room, both with tiled fireplaces, and a kitchen.

The property benefits from uPVC double glazing and oil fired central heating whilst, externally, there are mature gardens in lawns to both front and rear with paved patio, tarmac driveway, mature hedges and metal gates.

The property has been priced to allow the new purchaser to modernise and redecorate to their own taste and standard and should be viewed with that in mind.
