

6 Cochranes Lane

Carrowdore, Newtownards, BT22 2AU

"Have you ever dreamt of a life in the country? A homely place to live, some outside space, a workshop or two to tinker about in? Welcome to 6 Cochranes Lane."

Located on a shared laneway close to Carrowdore village, this detached cottage traces its roots back about 200 years. It benefited from a significant extension in and around the 1970's and now offers 4 double bedrooms in addition to the original lounge and dining room. There is also a modern bathroom and a practical kitchen but some modernisation and upgrading should be anticipated to meet most buyers needs and tastes.

The property benefits from uPVC double glazing & fascia, oil fired central heating, a solid fuel Rayburn range, and a "rented roof" solar system to reduce running costs. Externally the grounds extend to approx. 0.5 acres with lawns, mature shrubs, concrete and stone parking areas plus garage/workshop and a large metal "Barn style" shed with messinine floor. Please read the "Buyers notes" attached, prior to requesting a viewing, and be realistic in your expectations of an older property that will benefit from some modernisation, and we don't think you'll be dissappointed.
