Thrive In The Drive!

This is a wonderful opportunity to purchase a spacious semi-detached property located in a popular area of East Belfast. The property occupies a generous site that offers a brick paved driveway and lovely gardens to the rear.

Downstairs comprises an entrance hall with a wooden floor, a spacious living room with a wood strip floor and a fantastic open plan kitchen and dining room with double doors to the rear decked area. Upstairs are three bedrooms - one with a built in robe and a modern bathroom with a separate shower cubicle.

To the front there is a brick paved driveway and a front garden laid in stones. The rear garden is fully enclosed and offers a lawn and a lovely patio area that is the perfect place to enjoy some al fresco dining.

Rochester Drive is ideally located between the Cregagh & Castlereagh Road that offer an excellent range of local amenities to include the ever popular Forestside shopping centre. Belfast City Centre is easily accessible by local transport and there is a vast range of leading primary and secondary schools in the vicinity.
