A fabulous opportunity to acquire a delightful two bedroom second floor apartment in the ever popular 'Covehill' development. Located behind the main apartment building, the property itself is within a block of only six units within a development of forty seven units. Internally the apartment has been tastefully decorated with a very cosy atmosphere throughout. Nearby is the West Strand Beach with the beautiful scenic walk along to Portrush Harbour and the well established Ramore Winebar. We cannot emphasize enough to those seeking a luxurious getaway in a truly amazing location for early Internal appraisal at your earliest opportunity.

Leaving Portrush heading towards Portstewart, take your third left after the Dhu Varren railway bridge into Covehill Court. Drive right into the development and follow the road right around the main building of apartments. No. 42 will be within a block of six apartments on the second floor behind the main building.
