

Tim Martin
.co.uk

Situated with good frontage to the county road, we are pleased to offer this agricultural holding extending to 34.5 acres or thereabouts to the the market.

The lands are currently all laid down to grass and provide good grazing. A lane leads to a former dwelling (now in ruins) and may provide limited opportunities for a replacement dwelling.

The farm is convenient to Crossgar and Killyleagh and provides an opportunity for those with a desire to extend their existing farm, commence farming in their own right or an ideal holding for equestrian purposes.

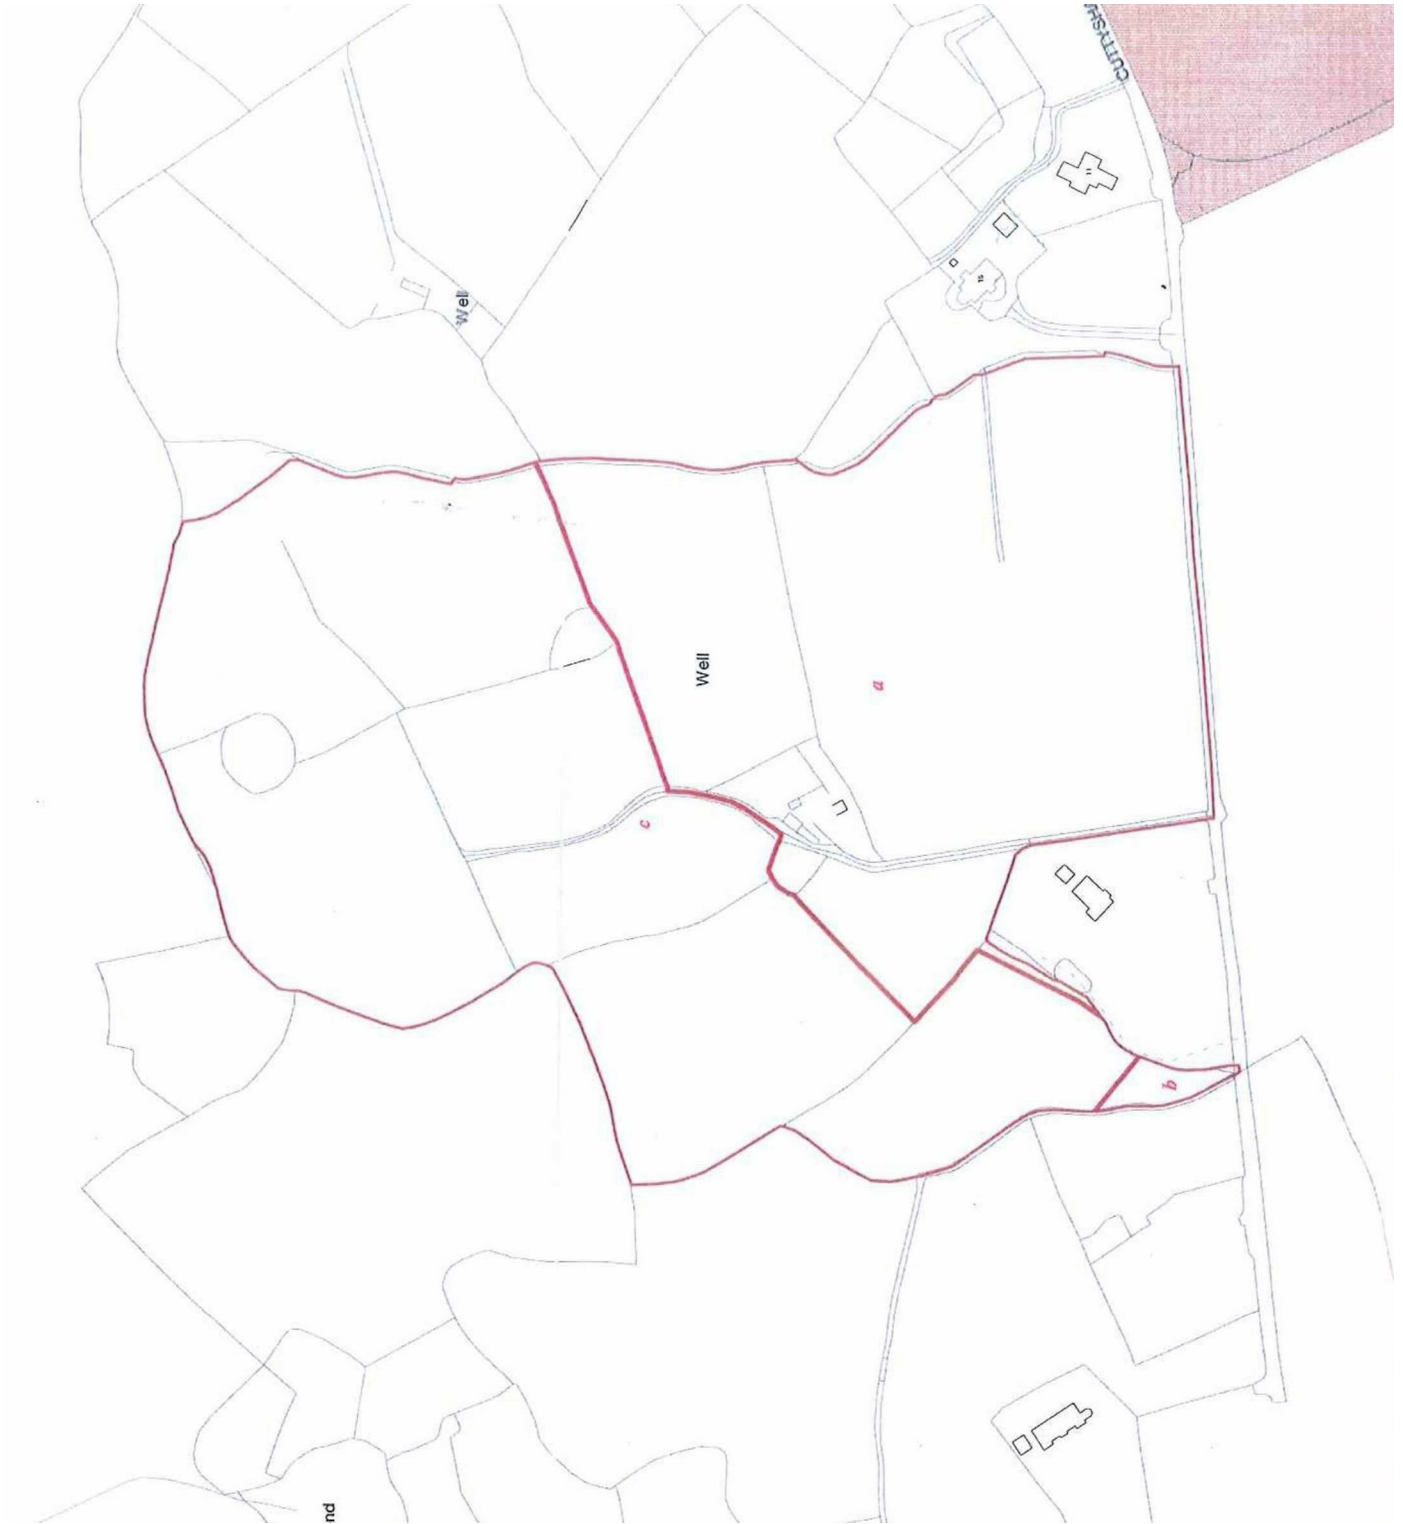

Viewing: Anytime

Note: The lands are currently let in conacre and are grazed with a suckler herd including a bull. Any interested parties enter the land at their own risk in the full knowledge that the above livestock are grazing the lands.
