The former market town of Stratton itself supports a useful range of local amenities including traditional shop, 2 public houses, modern hospital, garage, primary school with easy access to 2 supermarkets within a 5 minute drive. The adjoining popular coastal resort of Bude provides easy access to the South West Coastal path and supports a further range of shopping, schooling and recreational facilities as well as lying amidst the rugged North Cornish coastline famed for its many nearby areas of outstanding natural beauty and popular bathing beaches. The bustling market town of Holsworthy is some 8 miles inland whilst the town of Okehampton lying on the fringes of Dartmoor National Park is some 28 miles and provides a convenient link to the A30 which connects in turn to the cathedral city of Exeter with its intercity railway network, airport and motorway links. The port and market town of Bideford is some 24 miles and the regional North Devon centre of Barnstaple is some 34 miles.
