WHAT THE OWNER'S SAY...

6 Maxwell Park has been our family home for 10 years, and we have so many happy memories from our time here.

Maxwell Park is a like a well kept secret: it's a lovely quiet cul-de-sac, whilst still being only few minutes walk from the tennis club, the North Down coastal path, Stricklands Glen and the train station. We have enjoyed so much space and privacy, whilst still being able to enjoy the buzz of Bangor.

We have loved the flow of our home - we all gravitate towards the kitchen/living room as it's the heart of the home and opens onto our large garden. We will miss our wonderful garden so much - it's the perfect place to relax, entertain and play (we've had bouncy castles, trampolines and jungle gyms out there over there years!). The patio area is a peaceful, sheltered sun trap, and enjoys sunshine all day long.

Now that my children have grown up and started the next chapters of their lives, it's time for our much loved home to welcome a new family who can start creating as many happy memories as we have.
