Directions

From Holsworthy proceed along Fore Street turning right into Bodmin Street, and follow this road for approximately 5 miles towards North Tamerton. Proceed through the village, past the North Tamerton Methodist Chapel and continue for approx. 0.7 miles and take a left hand turn onto a single track lane. Follow this road for a short distance and the entrance to Semersdon Manor will be found with its name plaque clearly displayed.

Situation

Situated on the edge of the unspoilt village of North Tamerton which straddles the River Tamar valley and is about 4.5 miles from the bustling market town of Holsworthy, 12 miles from Bude on the North Cornish coast. The neighbouring village of Whitstone with its Primary School and well stocked shop is 4 miles, whilst Launceston and the A30 dual carriageway is 12 miles away.

Semersdon Manor - Introducing Semersdon Manor, a traditional Grade 2 listed Cornish manor constructed of cob and stone with Delabole slate roof. The manor has undergone renovation, but still boasts many original features, some dating back to the 13th century. These charming characteristics are seen throughout the property and includes the original well in the rear porch, original oak doors, exposed timbers and stone walls, stunning granite fireplaces, slate floors, a plank and muntin screen and lead windows with mullions.

This outstanding manor house has been mentioned on several occasions in Cornish history and is linked to the Arundell and Carminowe families, their coat of arms is engraved in a granite plaque above the entrance door with the date of 1633 noted. The residence is also referenced in the record held at the Truro County Records Office dating back to 1201.

Outside - The property is approached via its own entrance drive, which wraps around the manor providing extensive off road parking and giving access to the traditional cob and stone outbuildings. To the front of the property there is an area laid to lawn, accessed via granite steps and a stone chip path, which has been decorated with well stocked borders containing a variety of mature flowers and shrubs. Within the garden there is a fishpond with bridge over, and timber barn which is used as a BBQ area with a stunning clematis covered pergola. The pond feeds a waterfall that leads to another fish and lily pond, with adjacent slate patio area, that then extends to another larger pond with island. Beyond the large pond there is a paddock, enjoying lovely views of the valley and the surrounding countryside, with distant views of Dartmoor. The paddock is bordered by a pretty stream which eventually connects to the River Tamar.

To the rear of the manor there is a beautiful traditional cob and stone Barn, which is separated into 4 sections. The seller is currently using the barn for a variety of uses including games room, store, workshop and general store. Subject to gaining the necessary consents, this building is thought to be suitable for conversion into an additional dwelling or holiday cottage. Adjoining the barn is a further paddock, all the land together extends to approx. 4.7 acres in total.

A further area to the side of the property, previously used as a vegetable garden, with a polytunnel and orchard planted with a variety of fruit trees.
