Nestled in the heart of Devon, between Exmoor and Dartmoor, the village of Winkleigh is home to less than 1500 people. The village has a long history, mentioned in the Domesday Book in 1086 and has braved many hardships, including the Black Death in the 14th Century. The village has been seen as one of the most sustainable in the country, being voted the best place to raise a family in 2011 due to its abundance of village services and green spaces. It currently boasts two pubs, a butchers, a general store, a doctor's surgery and a veterinary clinic, as well as a village hall and sports centre.

For those that enjoy outdoor pursuits Winkleigh is only 27 miles to the heart of Dartmoor with an abundance of stunning scenery to explore. The closest coastline is only 23 miles away and is a real mecca for surfers, body boarders and dog walkers alike. Only a short distance away are some lovely walks in Winkleigh Woods, a peaceful environment to enjoy, why not take a picnic with you and make a day of it?

Ticking boxes aside, it is in my experience that the feel of the home is what will make you buy it. Only by visiting this beautiful home you will know if it is "the one". I strongly urge you to take the time to experience it for yourself and would love the opportunity to meet with you there to help embed what you see on paper in the flesh.
