Let your imagination run wild.

Castles, forests, sea, wildlife and all sorts of magical things for you to enjoy. The first of the nine glens of Antrim, Glenarm is possibly the oldest village in Ulster and dates back to Norman times. That is reflected in the character and beauty of the village, harbour and property. The Vennel itself oozes with individuality. Over 100 years old, it has been loved, cared for and immaculately presented. We loved it too.
